Carthage, MO,
Indianapolis, IN
Austin, TX
Be sure to join us!

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

Cottonwood Canyon Elementary School is located in Lake Elsinore California and is an NEU Bachelor's School of Distinction. This year, they continued a tradition that should be a standard at every NEU School by taking their annual staff picture in front of a green screen, setting it to a different university, and sharing info about that school to their students. This year's picture takes place on the Notre Dame campus and follows pictures past pics at Purdue, USC, and many more. Way to go CCE!

NEU ALUMNI OF THE MONTH

Name: Kayla Zendejas, 2014 Los Pen NEU Scholarship Winner

College: Miramar College

Major: Communications

NEU Impact:

"I attended Los Penasquitos Elementary School and if it wasn't for the NEU experience I had there, then I don't think I would be where I am today...NEU made a big impact on me and it just showed me to never give up on anything that you want to accomplish..."
